Clear 5th Chakra Communication

In this workshop we will look at what happens with your inner voice when your information comes in. Do you allow doubt, judgment or any other form of invalidation to pop up in your 5th chakra?

Let's look at what created these filters in the first place and what gives them permission to affect your ability to have a clear communication between your body and being.

Rev. Philippe Jestin

Updating Your Communication

Do people misunderstand you or do you feel ignored? If our words don't convey our meaning, then whose meaning is being expressed? If others don't understand you, why does it get scrambled?

Your karmic journey has had some bumpy roads and many of us have stifled and/or camouflaged our message for coping.

Now you have many tools: Seniority, separation, de-energizing mental image pictures, energetic boundaries and many more that we will employ for this 7-week class on Updating Your Communication.

Look forward to playing with you!

Rev. Judy Tergis

Spring Cleaning

When was the last time you meditated on and cleaned out your 8th/9th chakras and Creative Rings? Take a deep dive into these chakras and get more information about them.

Are your Creative Rings in affinity with you? Sometimes they can get a little out of whack, so this will be a good time to check them out and make sure they are working for you.

Rev. Leah Shapiro

Thursday, May 02 • 7:30 - 9:30 pm PT (cleanout 1/2 hour early)

Advanced Healing Techniques

In the clairvoyant program you learned about some powerful healing techniques, but you may not remember them all. Review how to do these healings, so you will have opportunity to explore your energy system and body in a deep and meaningful way.

We will cover, among many other things; de-programming, the electrical system and the picture making machine and astral body. I may sneak in a couple of other interesting healings as well.

Looking forward to seeing you!
